CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise as to the last or best bid, the lot shall be put up again and re-sold.

2.—No person shall retract his bidding, nor advance a less sum at each bidding than shall be named by the Auctioneers. The Auctioneers reserve the right to refuse the bidding of any person should they think proper to do so, and to withdraw any lots or make any alteration in these conditions at the time of sale.

3.—Each purchaser shall give in his name and place of abode and pay down a deposit of 25 per cent. or the full amount of the purchase-money, (if required) immediately upon the fall of the hammer (in default of which the lot shall be put up again and re-sold, and such deposit shall be held and be as a general deposit on the whole of the lots bought by the purchaser.

4.—No lot shall be removed from the premises until paid for, but every lot shall immediately at the fall of the hammer be considered as delivered, and shall remain in every respect at the absolute risk of the purchaser thereof, and shall be removed from the place of sale at the purchaser's expense.

5.—No warranty of any kind is given as to the correctness of the descriptions of the various lots, which are sold subject to all faults and errors of description, if any such there be.

6.—No undertaking of the Auctioneers or their servants to take charge of any lots after the sale, or to forward them to their destination, shall be held to impose upon the Auctioneers any legal obligation, or vitiate any of these conditions.

7.—All lots must be paid for on the day of and immediately after the Sale, and cleared by 4 o'clock on Saturday, 8th December, and should any lots not be so cleared which are not paid for, or only so in part, they shall be sold by public or private sale, without giving any further notice to the purchasers; and any loss arising from such re-sale shall be recoverable from the defaulters as and for liquidated damages. No lots will be delivered until Saturday, 8th December.

8.—Should any dispute arise upon any matter connected with this Sale, the same shall be settled by the Auctioneers, whose decision shall be final and binding upon all parties.
